@

On the 19 December last I had the honor to draw your attention to the defective arrangements which exist for the supply of Sappral bullocks between Cuddalore and Hassan, but I have not yet been favored with any reply to my communication. I therefore beg to again bring this matter to your notice and to represent that the difficulties in procuring bullocks still exists and that several cases have lately occurred in which gentlemen who were seriously unwell and who were on their way to Hassan for medical advice have been at much risk detained for several hours on the journey.
